GO CAFE HOPPING

Canggu is chock full of healthy cafés and cute brunch spots, so we say, spend your days sampling the very best of them. There's everything from Insta-famous vegan cafés, to award-winning coffee shops and beachfront brunches too. Settle in for a long and lazy morning and fill up on Bali's yummiest bites. We've listed a few of our faves below, but you'll also want to check out Times Beach Warung, Sensorium and The Shady Shack.

KICK BACK BY THE BEACH

Home to Bali's most happening beachfront destinations, a trip to Canggu wouldn't be complete without lounging poolside at one of Bali's best beach clubs. Just footsteps from the sand, you'll find cosy cabanas, glittering infinity pools and coastal cuisine that pairs perfectly with a tropical cocktail. From the world-famous Finns Beach Club to the boho-chic La Brisa, Canggu is where it's at for a sun-soaked day beside the seaside.

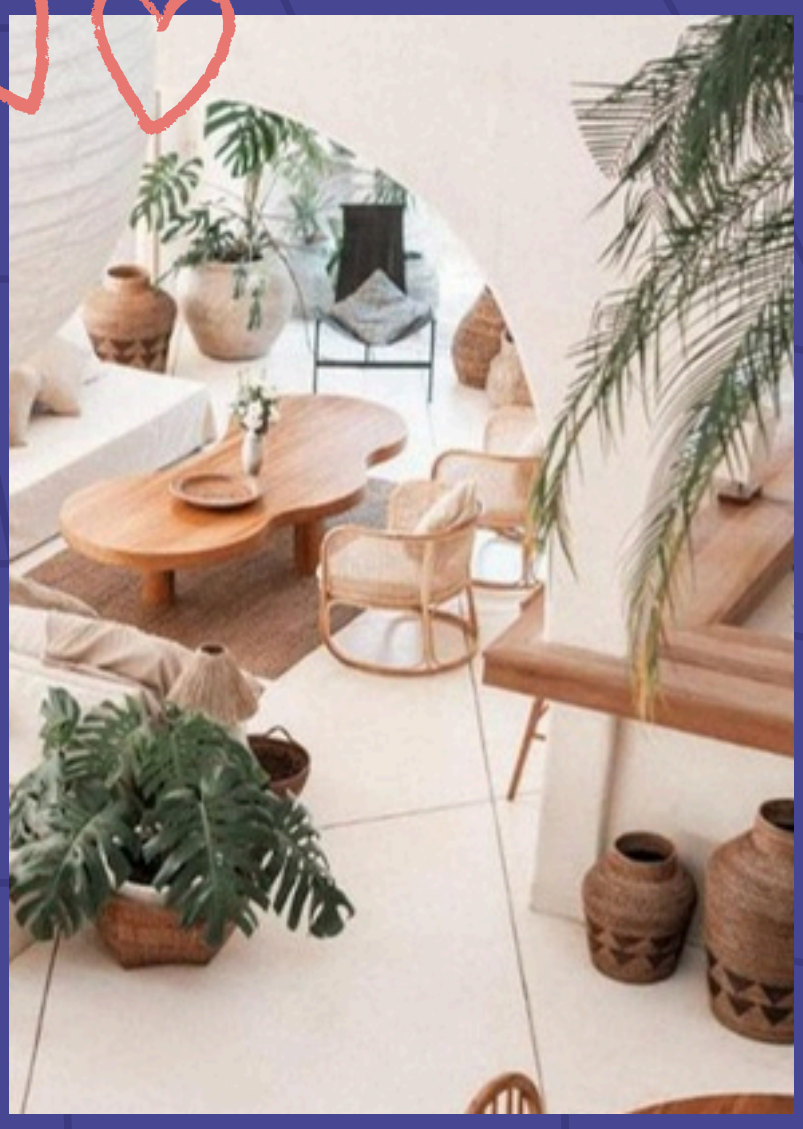

PARTY ALL NIGHT

No longer a sleepy surf town, Canggu is now the epicentre of nightlife in Bali. Head out for a night on the town and you'll find every kind of watering hole imaginable. Think parties on the beach, underground clubs with live DJs, and even hidden speakeasies for our fellow cocktail connoisseurs. We start our evenings with sundowners at The Lawn, before craft beers at Black Sand Brewery and a night-cap at Bar Vera. You can't go wrong.

WHERE TO STAY

in Canggu

HOTEL SAGES @hotelsages

With its breathtaking interiors and minimalist Moroccan-style architecture, the adults-only Hotel Sages could easily be mistaken for a private villa. This boutique hotel is home to a small collection of designer rooms that look out over the glittering pool, fringed by a warm and cosy communal space that's filled with tropical plants and gorgeous knick-knacks. Think house-made ceramics, luxurious textiles and Pinterest-worthy nooks everywhere you look.

VASSANI STAY @vassanistay

Home to breezy private lofts and studios, Vassani Stay is just a two-minute scooter ride away from one of Bali's most popular surf spots. This modest complex of just seven apartments come with sexy, minimalistic and earthy designs, some with kitchens, workspaces and mezzanines, and a shared swimming pool at its heart. Like your very own home in the heart of paradise, you're just steps away from Canggu's best bars, spas, boutiques and cafes.

THE SLOW @the.slow

Achingly hip with a rebellious, rock 'n' roll soul, The Slow is an immersive, multifaceted boutique hotel that's full of art, culture and Californian touches. It's home to just 12 gorgeous suites (some with their own plunge pools) together with a botanical restaurant and bar, a rooftop space for sunset cocktails, as well as an art hub. The vibe here is all about laid-back island living, with the crashing surf just a few sandy footsteps away...

MILK & MADU

@milkandmadu

Everyone loves this absolute jewel of a café, and for good reason. Now in both Berawa and Batu Bolong, Milk & Madu is best known for its wholesome all-day breakfasts, lunches and dinners, all of which come with good vibes and a family-friendly setting. Try the fluffy Madu pancakes with fresh strawberries, or the three-egg skillet with either bacon, cured salmon or feta, perfectly matched with a fresh juice and a great cuppa.

CRATE CAFE

Is this the best breakfast place in Bali? Many would say so. This rad, hipster cafe is always buzzing with Canggu's coolest – maybe it's the awesome soundtrack, the on-site boutique, or maybe it's just that the food is so goddamn good (and affordable!). And with its iconic industrial-chic look, bold murals, super smoothie bowls and some of the best coffee in town, you can't miss Crate Cafe. But don't just take our word for it – the queue out the door speaks for itself!

BAKED.

@baked.indonesia

At this uber-popular bakery and cafe, flawless croissants and still-warm sourdough are just the beginning. Located in both Berawa and Pererenan, BAKED is where you can tuck into honey toast with mascarpone and elderflower, ricotta hotcakes with blueberries and maple syrup, or our fave: the folded eggs with spinach, sweet chilli jam and cream cheese. Settle in amid the white-washed interiors, or take home their delicious doughy creations...

DINNER & DATE NIGHT

in Canggu

SKOOL @skoolkitchen

Sitting directly above The Lawn, SKOOL is an open-flame, primitive-style kitchen overlooking the waves of Batu Bolong. Every dish here is touched by fire, powered by natural wood and charcoal embers. Reserve a seat at the chef's counter to watch the masters in action, or dine al fresco on the open-air deck. Feast on slow-roasted lamb, coal-baked beetroot and hay-smoked kingfish, and don't miss the Skool Martini.

NUMERO QUATTRO @numeroquattro.echobeach

Numero Quattro is Canggu's neighbourhood Italian nestled in the heart of Echo Beach, slinging superb Italian staples that are hand-crafted and cooked to perfection. Or, try Chef Joel Bennetts' special oxtail lasagne, best paired with a classic cocktail given a Numero Quattro twist...

SHELTER @shelter.pererenan

A hidden oasis amid tropical greenery, Shelter dishes up an elevated take on Middle Eastern and Mediterranean cuisine. We can't get enough of the wood-roasted scallops, the tuna tartare or the smoked eggplant drizzled in pickled chilli. But the best way to enjoy this Canggu showstopper? Round up your mates, order a smorgasbord of dishes, and get a taste of it all. PS – their chocolate salted caramel is our fave dessert in Bali!

The waves here regularly barrel onto sharp reefs with strong currents to boot, attracting advanced surfers from far and wide. GO BACK TO NATURE

Ubud is surrounded by natural beauty, so you'll definitely want to set aside some time to enjoy it all. And if you're still feeling adventurous? There's also ATV rides, white water rafting, jungle swings and even a hike to the top of the nearby Mount Batur volcano.

IMMERSE IN ART & CULTURE

Absolutely everyone should take time to visit Ubud's local art shops, studios, traditional markets and temples. Shop beautiful crafts, browse local produce or even join an art workshop (our fave is Serayu Pottery) to make your own handmade treasures to take home. Then, spend some time visiting the magical Hindu temples all around Ubud, like the Goa Gajah Elephant Cave, or the Tirta Empul Water Temple. Just don't forget to cover up.

THINGS TO DO

in Nusa Lembongan

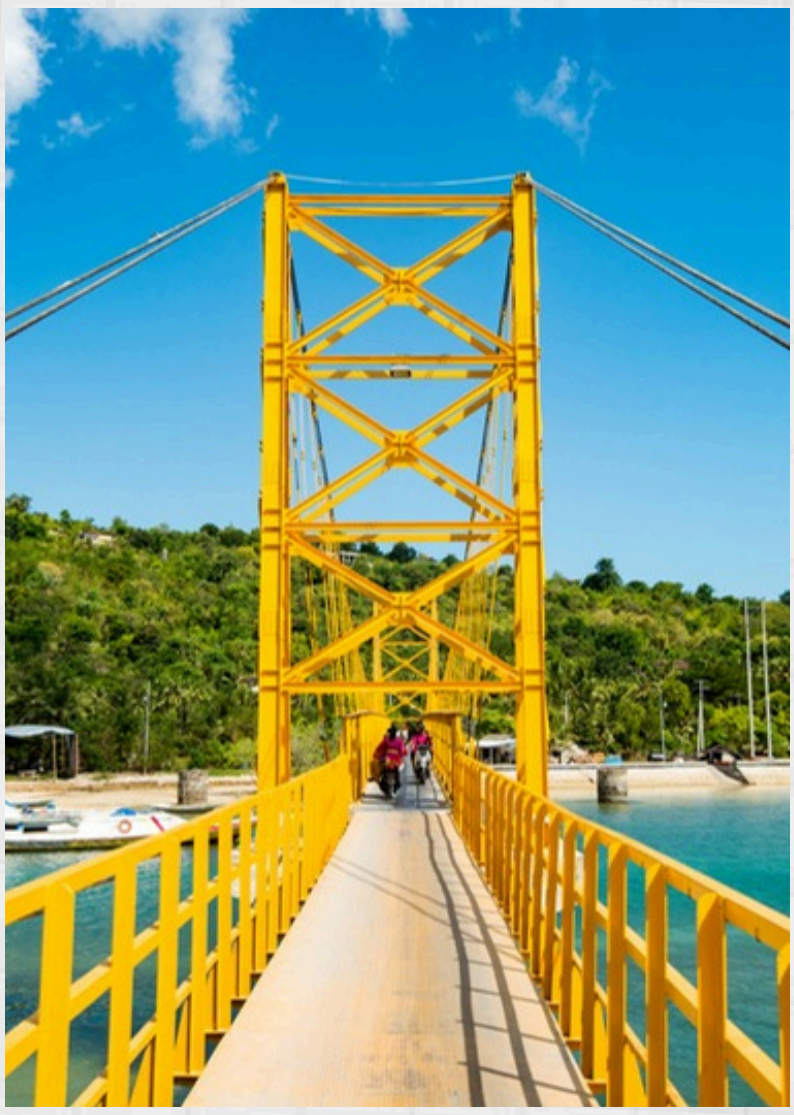

VISIT NATURAL WONDERS

Nusa Lembongan might be small, but it's home to a plethora of natural wonders. Head out onto the ocean to explore the vibrant coral reefs (you can spot Manta Rays!), or float through the Mangrove Forests on a kayak or small boat (Venice-style!). One of Lembongan's most iconic sites, you'll also want to check out Devil's Tear, where wild ocean tides meet rugged cliffs, forming giant plumes of water. And of course, save some time to hunt for quiet beaches, too.

PROP UP AT A BEACH CLUB

Unlike Bali's buzzing beach clubs, the beach clubs on Nusa Lembongan are often less crowded with slow, island vibes. Our faves? We regularly make the trip over to Nusa Lembongan just to sink our toes in the sand at Sandy Bay Beach Club, or to prop up beneath swaying palms at Suku Beach Club. For views over a turquoise bay, head to Le Pirate Beach Club, before soaking in the sunset vibes at Ohana's with a few tropical cocktails. Heaven!

CROSS THE YELLOW BRIDGE

Connecting Nusa Lembongan to its little sister island – Nusa Ceningan – the famous Yellow Bridge is simply iconic. Crossing the bridge alone is worth the trip, but once you reach the other side, you'll find a whole new island to explore. Even quieter than Lembongan, Nusa Ceningan is home to a few breezy beach bars, gorgeous bays and untouched landscapes. Want to island-hop even further? Take a short boat ride to the neighbouring Nusa Penida.

Psst – don't miss sunset hour at the resort's rooftop bar!

BATU KARANG LEMBONGAN

Inside, expect magical modern meets traditional architecture, plus all the glam perks you'd expect from such a stylish stay.

VILLA SEASCAPE

DINNER & DATE NIGHT

in Nusa Lembongan

CURRY TRADERS

@currytraders_lembongan

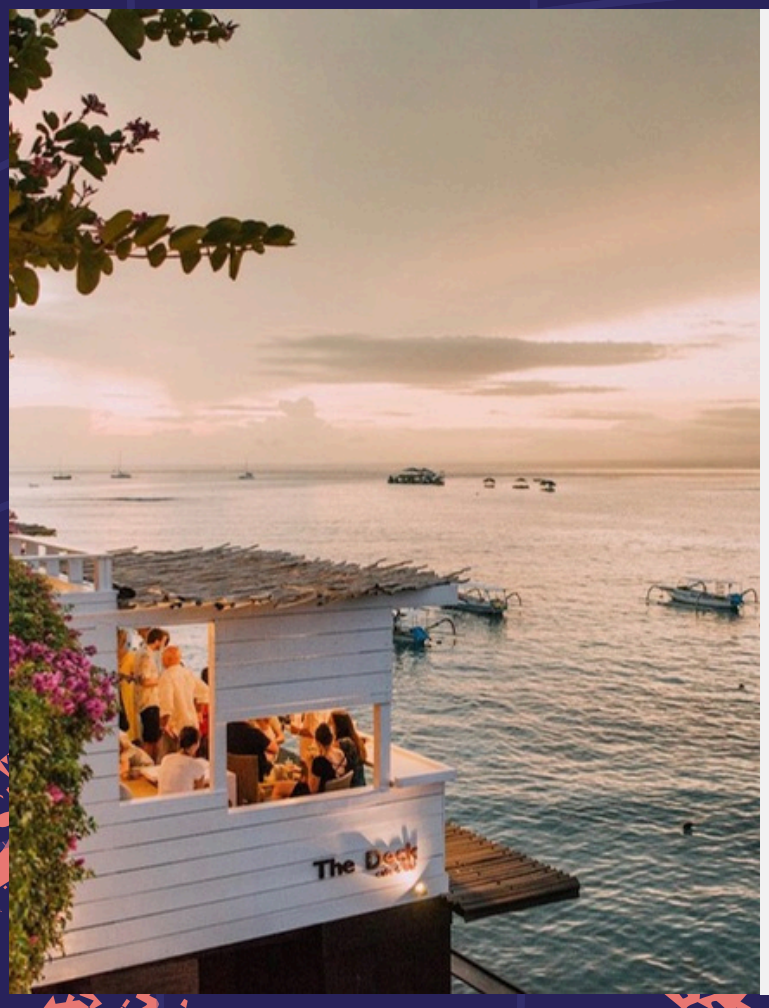

You'll catch the scent of Curry Traders before you even see it, with the aromatics of authentic Asian spices wafting from the open kitchen. Not a curry house nor an Indian restaurant, this spice-inspired destination brings the flavours of Thailand, India and Sri Lanka to Nusa Lembongan. Think tandoori king prawns, butter chicken and lamb kebabs, sloshed down with classic cocktails, chai martinis and water bubble shots.

THE BEACH SHACK

@thebeachshack.lembongan

Sitting right on the beach on the quieter part of Jungutbatu, The Beach Shack is where you can sit with your toes in the sand just footsteps from the ocean. Awesome food and drinks are served up throughout the day here, with funky tunes and epic cocktails keeping the island vibes alive.

THE PONTOON AT LAGO

@lago.bali

The Pontoon at Lago is a solar-powered bar floating on open ocean, overlooking Playground's surf break and serving ice-cold beer and cocktails. Hop on the free shuttle boat, then settle into a bean bag by the water's edge 'til sundown. Graze on small bites (like olives, buffalo cauliflower, salads and squid) and dive into the aquamarine waters all around.

THE HOWFF

@thehowfflembongan

A hidden whiskey and gin bar tucked away beneath The Deck, The Howff is Nusa Lembongan's breezy speakeasy that hangs over rugged rock and serves some of our very fave cocktails. The drams of powerful whiskey and globes of botanical gins at this dungeon bar are of the finest calibre, served with class and a touch of Scottish-Balinese charm.
